

CORNWELL FUNERAL

Services at the Central Union Church on Sunday.

The body of the late William H. Cornwell will arrive this morning from Waikapu on the steamer Mauna Loa. Mrs. Cornwell will accompany the remains, and other relatives and friends will also be in the funeral party.

F. W. Macfarlane who has been making arrangements for the funeral in Honolulu yesterday received a wireless message from Mrs. Cornwell in response to a query sent her, saying that she wished the Masons to take charge of the service.

The funeral has been set for Sunday afternoon at three o'clock and the services will be held in Central Union church. When the body arrives from Maui this morning it will be taken to the undertaking parlors. Tomorrow afternoon the remains will be removed to the Masonic Temple and the Masons will watch at the bier Saturday night and Sunday morning. At the conclusion of the Masonic ritual the body will be removed to Central Union church where services will be held Sunday afternoon at three o'clock.

These arrangements may be changed after the arrival of the widow, although no material alteration is anticipated.

A GIFT TO KAPIOLANI HOME

Mrs. J. M. Dowsett yesterday received from Mrs. S. C. Allen a check for $250 for the Kapiolani Maternity Home. Mrs. Allen writes that she was not here when the subscriptions were taken for the building fund of the home, and she is anxious help along the work. The gift is much appreciated by Mrs. Dowsett and all of those interested in the work at the Kapiolani Maternity Home.

It is a source of no small wonder to competent judges of good tobacco that any firm is able to produce for only ten cents a cigar so perfect from every point of view as the celebrated

General Arthur Cigar

It is true that the Havana is choicer Havana than is being put into any other cigar today. It is true that in workmanship, flavor, and thorough reliability the General Arthur cigar is wonderfully good. These things are made possible by the magnitude of the manufacturer's operations—with a small concern it would be absolutely impossible. The capital and resources of the largest cigar manufacturing business in America can reasonably be expected to produce results which far surpass the efforts of an ordinary enterprise.
